Waikereru Ecosanctuary

is a beautiful haven on the Waimata River in Gisborne, with rare riverside bush and endangered native plants and animals. It was established by Dame Anne and Jeremy Salmond as they believe the chance to spend time in such wild places should be the birth right of every kiwi kid

Waikereru Ecosanctuary is a beautiful, peaceful place for visitors; a home for the Wild Lab, an innovative science programme that inspires young people to learn about and take care of local waterways and landscapes and an experimental site for sustainable land uses.

Conservation projects include restoring native robins to the bush, establishing the Rene Orchiston harakeke (flax) collection and NZ's first inland grey faced petrel colony, and planting the 1769 garden, which features species collected on the East Coast by Dr Solander and Joseph Banks during Captain Cook's Endeavour expedition.

Any donation you make will be invested, protected and grown each year in line with inflation. The surplus investment income will be granted back to Waikereru Ecosanctuary every year, meaning your donation will keep supporting them forever.

What does the Sunrise Foundation do?

- We raise funds from donations and legacies
- We invest funds for the long term
- We use the income to provide grants for charities and organisations in the Gisborne District

Sunrise is a simple and lasting way to support local charities, organisations and causes that are important to you. You can support causes that are close to home and close to your heart.

As a community endowment foundation, Sunrise is all about capital preservation, all donations are invested, protected and grown to keep up with inflation. The surplus investment income is granted to needy causes throughout the Gisborne District.

Sunrise is an organisation for local people to give for local needs, to help build a strong future for Gisborne/Tairāwhiti forever.

Who runs Sunrise?

Sunrise has a volunteer board of nine trustees who provide a robust governance and succession model. The trustees are a group of respected and trusted individuals from within the local community.
