Waipaoa Station Farm Cadet Training Trust

is a registered charitable trust set up in 2007 by local industry leaders to fund, develop and run a land-based agricultural training programme.

Waipaoa is proudly dedicated to shaping the people who will shape the future of beef and lamb farming in New Zealand. Sheep and beef specialists, they are growing the leaders of New Zealand's red meat production.

Waipaoa's training is based around the core values of self-discipline, team work and friendship. Both practical and theoretical components are integrated into their programmes, with trainees studying toward National Certificate qualifications while experiencing the annual farm cycle first hand.

Feedback from employers and industry representatives are that Waipaoa trainees display an in-depth knowledge of general farm practice for their age. Their graduates are 'work ready' and have a reputation for being well rounded, confident and motivated to achieve at the highest level.

Waipaoa's nationally recognised training initiatives are leading the way in preparing future agricultural leaders.

Any donation you make will be invested, protected and grown each year in line with inflation. The surplus investment income will be granted back to the Waipaoa Station Farm Cadet Training Trust every year, meaning your donation will keep supporting them forever.
